BUFFALO BOWLING TOURNEY STARTS

New Yorkers Hope to Grab Off Plums.

PRIZE MONEY TOTALS $25,000

Entries Include Nearly 400 Fiveman Teams, 800 Two-man Teams, and 1,500 Individuals-Records of Previous Winners at All N. B. A. Tournaments.

Buffalo, Feb. 25.-The bowling world has shifted its gaze from St. Louis, where the annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress recently closed, to this city which will be the scene of the fifth international tournament of the National Bowling Association. The tournament will open to-night in Convention Hall and continue to March 18, while the convention will be held on March 18.

Although the National Bowling Association is essentially an Eastern organization, the central location of Buffalo has attracted a large number of entries from the Middle West an! from Canada. The most prominent bowlers in the country will compete, and the promoters are confident of seeing some new world's The entries include nearly 400 five-man

900 two-man teams, and 1,500 individuals, while the cash prizes to be distributed range from $20,000 to $25,000. New York City sent a big representation, and feels consident of carrying off the hog's share of the purse, as it did in the Baltimore tournament in 1909. In meet the Chaimers team, of Detroit. won the five-man team event with a total score of 2,217; with the Corin-No. 6, of New York, second; the Brunswicks, of New York, third, and Yonkers, New York, fourth.

First honors in the two-man event were captured by Burdine-Eckstein, of Wash ington. D. C., with a score of 1,395; Kram Brooklyn, finishing second Krichton-Lendhetter, of Baltimore, third, with 1,242.

the first five places. The nighest score, 2,924, was made by the Flemers. This is thirty-eight below the world's record which was established the Lipmans, of Chicago, in the A. B. C. tournament of Pittsburg. The best this team could do in the St. Louis meet First place in the individual event was captured by J. Blouin, of Chicago, with total for three games of 681. The world's record for this event is 705, as Liverpool, captured first honors in the twoman event, with a score of 1,246. The world's record for this event is 1,318, and was established by John McGuirk and John Grady, of Paterson, N. J., in the N. B. A. tournament held at Rochester in Jimmy Smith, of Buffalo, had the highest individual average in all events, his score being 1,919, which is 42 below the world's record, established by Thomas Haley, of Detroit. Mich., at the A. B. C. tournament in Detroit, in 1910. Smith is one of the active workers i the Buffalo tournament.

In the Haydn-Wagner set Big Marti Wiegand had an off day, his best gam being 139. That set was so far below Martin's usual form that it comes as distinct surprise to all hands.
